LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{1}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, exchange, or otherwise mines and mineral claims or properties, placer leases, mineral leases, mining leases, oil leases, prospects, licences, options, mining and mineral and oil rights of every description, options, or authorities, and other mines, lands, buildings, mineral properties, mining, water, and other rights, and metalliferous lands in any part of the world, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of or deal with the same, and, either solely or jointly with others, to carry on the business of miners of every description:

(b.) To prospect for, open, manage, work, explore, develop, and maintain gold, silver, tin, copper, lead, sulphur, coal, iron, petroleum, natural gas, and other mines, mineral and other rights, properties, and works, and to carry on and conduct the business of recovering, raising, crushing, washing, smelting, reducing, and amalgamating ores, metals, and minerals of whatsoever nature, and to render the same merchantable and fit for use, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in minerals, dredging equipment, plant, timber, machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions, and things:

(c.) To carry on any other business of a similar nature, or any business which may, in the opinion of the directors, be conveniently carried on by this Company, and to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(d.) To dig, drill, or bore for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, refine, amalgamate, assay, analyse, and otherwise treat sulphur, gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal, oil, shale, clay, petroleum, natural gas, and any other ore, deposit, metal, or mineral whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product thereof, and to engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals; and generally to carry on the business of a mining and development company:

(e.) To carry on in any part of the world any one or more of the businesses of prospecting for, producing, dealing in, transporting, storing, and distributing, and manufacturing sulphur, petroleum, carbon oils, gases, ores, and other mineral substances, and the products, by-products, or derivatives thereof; and to make, acquire, produce, hold, operate, use, dispose of, and otherwise deal in and with the said substances and products, rights to and interests in lands and other properties from which they may be derived, drilling, pumping, mining, milling, reducing, refining, smelting, and other plants, gold-dredging and other equipment or apparatus for producing, manufacturing, or otherwise working such substances and products; pipe-lines, pumping-stations, tank-cars, tank-ships, boats, barges, towing-boats, and other conveyances, tanks, terminals, docks, and any other rights and properties, real, personal, or mixed, which may be necessary or convenient to the conduct of any of the said businesses:

(f.) To buy or otherwise acquire and sell or otherwise dispose of any interest in oil, royalties, metals, mines, mineral properties, and other properties, real, personal, or mixed, of a speculative or non-speculative nature:

(g.) To carry out any transactions or operations whatsoever which may be lawfully undertaken and carried out by capitalists, brokers, merchants, underwriters, financiers, or concessionaires, and to carry on a general financial business and general financial operations of all kinds in any part of the world, and to undertake or aid in any enterprise:

(h.) To carry on the business of a transportation company generally, and to acquire by purchase, lease, charter-party, contract, or otherwise, steamboats, tug-boats, sailing-vessels, aeroplanes, hydroplanes, or any other kind of boats or vessels or planes whatsoever, and to build and construct any such kind of boats, vessels, or planes deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes and objects of the Company, and to use, maintain, or operate any or all of such boats and vessels for the transportation of equipment and supplies and for the conveying-away of the products of the Company's properties, mines, and mineral lands, or for any other purposes, and to acquire and hold shares in any railway, tramway, airway, steamship, or other transportation company:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any company, society, syndicate, partnership, or person formed for all or any part of the purposes within the objects of this Company, and to conduct and carry on or liquidate and wind up any such business, and to purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire for the purposes of the Company any estates, lands, buildings, easements, or other interest in real estate, and to sell, let on lease, or otherwise dispose of or grant rights over any real property belonging to the Company:

(j.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia, or any similar Act passed or regulation made by any Government of any other Province, territory, or country, including any Statute or regulation passed or promulgated by any de facto authority having control in any part of the world, and to acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; and to acquire, construct, operate, and maintain waterworks and hydraulicking works of every nature, and to distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, operating, and maintaining any and all improvements of every sort whatsoever necessary for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, and for that purpose to construct, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes for the development of power:

(k.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to construct, operate, maintain, or alter, trails, roads, ways, tramways, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, canals, aqueducts, pipe-lines, wells, tanks, bridges, wharves, piers, mills, pumping plants, dredges, and gold-dredging equipment of all kinds, factories, foundries, furnaces, coke-ovens, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, refining-works, hydraulic, electrical, and other works and appliances, power devices and plants of every kind, laboratories, warehouses, boarding-houses, dwellings, buildings, machinery, plant, and other works and conveniences, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, provisions, implements, chattels, and effects:

(l.) To build, purchase, lease, hire, charter, navigate, use, and operate cars, wagons, and other vehicles, boats, ships, and other vessels:

(m.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any concessions, decrees, and contracts for or in relation to the construction, execution, carrying-out, equipment, improvement, management, administration, or control of public works and conveniences of all kinds, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account the same:

(n.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any inventions that may seem to the Company capable of being profitably dealt in, and to use, exercise, develop, grant, licence in all respects, or vend or otherwise turn to account all or any of such patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concession, and the like, and with a view to the working and development of the same to carry on any business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which the Company may think calculated, directly or indirectly, to effectuate these objects:

(o.) To pay for any property, rights, or services acquired by the Company either in cash or shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital, or otherwise, or by any securities which the Company has power to issue or partly to issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally upon such terms as the Directors may determine, including granting options of taking up shares of the Company:

(p.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(q.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing or promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by or any other obligations of any such company:

(r.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(s.) To enter into any partnership or any joint-purse arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, joint adventure, or co-operation with or agency for any company, firm, or person carrying on or engaged in, or proposing to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction within the objects for the Company, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(t.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(u.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(v.) To draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities:

(w.) To invest its money, and generally to lend and advance its money to any person or companies without security, or upon such securities and terms and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient, and to guarantee the performance of any contract by any person or company:

(x.) Generally to engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals:

(y.) To borrow or raise money for the purpose of the Company's business:

(z.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present and future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, to issue debentures, mortgage debentures and debenture stock payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable:

(aa.) To enter into any arrangements or contracts with any Governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(bb.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit any of the employees or ex-

employees of the Company, or any of the dependents or connections of any such persons, and to grant to any such persons, dependents, or connections pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance thereof respectively, and generally to subscribe or guarantee money to or for charitable or benevolent objects, or to or for any exhibition, or to or for any public, general, or useful object, and to make gifts or donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever:

(cc.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(dd.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause when not applied to this Company shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons political, mercantile, or otherwise, whether incorporated or not incorporated, whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, whether existing or hereafter to be formed.

No. 16024.

NOTICE is hereby given that "J. T. Coutts and Company, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 10th day of December, 1937.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into one hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 839 Beatty Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now carried on at 839 Beatty Street, in the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia, under the firm-name and style of "J. T. Coutts and Company," together with the stock-in-trade and good-will of such business and all agencies held by it, together with the benefit of an arrangement made between the said J. T. Coutts and Company and English Steel Corporation, Limited, of Sheffield, England, and to enter into an agreement with the said English Steel Corporation, Limited, to carry out such arrangement:

(b.) Subject to the "Engineering Act," to carry on the business of structural steel workers, iron-founders, mechanical engineers, structural engineers, steel fabricators, and manufacturers of machinery of every description whatsoever, including, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, tool-makers, brass-founders, metal-workers, boiler-makers, engine-makers, pump-makers, manufacturers of aeroplanes and airships and motor-vehicles, millwrights, machinists, iron and steel converters, smelters, smiths, wood-workers, builders, painters, metallurgists, electrical engineers, water-supply engineers, gas-makers, carriers, and merchants, and to buy, sell, manufacture, repair, convert, alter, let on hire, and deal in machinery, implements, rolling-stock, and hardware of all kinds, and to carry on any other business (manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or otherwise calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of any of the Company's property and rights for the time being:

(c.) To carry on any business relating to the winning and working of minerals, the production and working of metals, and the production, manufacture, and preparation of any other materials which may be useful or conveniently combined with the engineering or manufacturing business of the Company or any contracts undertaken by the Company, and either for the purpose only of such contracts or as an independent business:

(d.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of and (or) dealers in paints, bricks, tiles, pipes, pottery, earthenware, china, and terra-cotta and ceramic ware of all kinds, and of paviors and manufacturers of and dealers in artificial stone or building or paving material of every description, whether for building, paving, or other purposes:

(e.) To carry on the business of storage, wharfage, warehousing, and forwarding, and the doing of every act or acts, thing or things, incidental or growing out of or connected with said business; the storage and docking of ships, steam-vessels, and boats of every kind and description; the loading and unloading thereof, the issue of storage and warehouse receipts, negotiable and non-negotiable, covering all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise; the collection and receipt of dockage, wharfage, and storage dues and other compensations:

(f.) To carry on business of general merchants, and dealers in all manufactured goods, materials, provisions, and produce whatsoever:

(g.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia and elsewhere the business of brokers in all its branches whatsoever, and also the business of agents for loan and trust companies, agents for fire, life, accident, automobile, plate glass, and marine insurance companies, and agents for any other branch of the insurance business whatsoever:

(h.) To make advances or loans upon the security of any goods, wares, merchandise, machinery, automobiles, and other vehicles, and to purchase or otherwise acquire any chattel mortgage, sale agreement, lien note or other security upon any such property:

(i.) To buy, sell, exchange and deal in accounts receivable, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, hire receipts, chattel mortgages, lien notes, conditional sale agreements, and other securities in respect of the same or any of them; to take any of the said securities or other commercial paper in payment for the sale of any personal property; and to sell, charge, or hypothecate any of the said securities on personal property received in the course of its business:

(j.) To amalgamate with any person or persons, or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company, or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company, or cash, as the Company may think fit; and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(k.) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever. Provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act," chapter 133, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936":

(l.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, mortgage, manage, improve, turn to account, sell, or otherwise deal in any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges appertaining thereto, which the Company may deem to be necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, water rights, water privileges, machinery, plant, tools, and implements, and stock-in-trade; and the consideration for same may be cash or shares of the Company, or part cash and part shares:

(m.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company, or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(n.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(o.) To register or license the Company in any part of the British Empire or elsewhere:

(p.) The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereof shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in no wise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph, or the name of the Company) but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent Company.
